

Its unfair that one has to subscribe to packages of channels - instead of being able to subscribe to only those you want & only have to pay for those you want. The major cable companies are taking advantage of their monopoly on the market and jack up prices to ridiculous heights - and make you subscribe and pay huge prices to get the couple channels you want. please help the public consumers.